A Restaurant Rooted in
The Granite City

AN EVENING AT AMUSE IS AN ELEGANT CELEBRATION
OF SCOTTISH PRODUCE AND FRENCH TECHNIQUE

Tucked beneath a handsome granite townhouse on Queen's Terrace, Amuse is Aberdeen's leading restaurant. Our chefs cook from the heart — modern Scottish plates lifted by classical French technique, built around the finest regional produce and the rhythm of the seasons.

Whether you are hosting an intimate client dinner in our private dining room, entertaining colleagues over a quick business lunch, or gathering in Le Petit Bar for cocktails before a meeting, our small, dedicated team is here to make every visit feel effortless.

Five minutes' walk from Aberdeen city centre, in the heart of the West End.

An Evening at Amuse

FROM THE FIRST GLASS TO THE LAST PETIT FOUR

TO BEGIN

Canapés & Champagne

Your evening opens in the dining room or Le Petit Bar with a glass of something chilled and a sequence of chef's canapés — small, seasonal, and a preview of what's to come.

TO FINISH

Petits Fours & Dessert Wine

An unhurried close to the evening. A considered dessert wine from our list, paired with a final flourish from the pastry section — each piece a small celebration in its own right.

The Rooms

FOUR SPACES · ONE PHILOSOPHY

From quiet corporate lunches to celebratory tasting menus, Amuse offers four distinct settings within a single, elegantly appointed townhouse — each tailored, each unmistakably ours.
